

14 The Renowned History of
as much as to say, Do Tommy, do Margery, come with me. They cried, poor Things, and she sighed away her Soul ; and I hope is happy.

It would both have excited your Pity, and have done your Heart good, to have seen how fond these two little ones were of each other, and how, Hand in Hand, they trotted about. Pray see them.

They

GOODY TWO-SHOES.

They were both very ragged, and Tommy had two Shoes, but Margery had but one. They had nothing, poor Things, to support them (not being in their own Parish) but what they picked from the Hedges, or got from the poor People, and they lay every Night in a Barn. Their Relations took no Notice of them ; no, they were rich, and ashamed to own such
